It comes from the source I was citing in the Economist. My goal wasn't to look at the reasons that someone might drop out of high school, but rather look at the overall trends that such a choice would have on their earning potential relative to people who completed college. Propagandaville: Part Four, New York, Washington, D. C. May 15, 2019 Ginny Good is the best book published anywhere in the world so far this century...and the best San Francisco book published in any century. Read it and see. It's free. It's also a multimedia audio book. And a multimedia video book. The Multimedia Video Book of Ginny Good could go, with a little professional fiddling, onto Netflix, Amazon, HBO, etc. as an hour-long, fifteen part. Books - The New York Times Hannibal Lecter™s Creator Cooks Up Something New (No Fava Beans or Chianti) The "Silence of the Lambs" author Thomas Harris, overshadowed by the cannibal he invented, has kept a low profile. The Music Man - Wikipedia The Music Man is a musical with book, music, and lyrics by Meredith Willson, based on a story by Willson and Franklin Lacey. The plot concerns con man Harold Hill, who poses as a boys' band organizer and leader and sells band instruments and uniforms to naive Midwestern townsfolk, promising to train the members of the new band. Harold is no musician, however, and plans to skip town without.
